

WT2.14: Universidad Carlos III de Madrid, Spain

Report

Activities performed during the visit in Wrocław period: 29.09.2013 -1.10.2013

author: Tomasz Kajdanowicz

1 Personal Information

Dr. Ricardo Colomo-Palacios, faculty member of Universidad Carlos III de Madrid, Spain, visited Wrocław University of Technology, Poland, in the period from 2013-09-29 to 2013-10-01 in order to participate in the ENGINE project kick-off meeting.

2 Information about Seminars

Dr. Colomo-Palacios participated only in the kick-off meeting, so he was unable to give a separate seminar during his visit.

3 Description of scientific activities

During this short kick-off presentation he presented his research areas, looking for potential cooperation in the field of information systems management, social and future web and technology innovation.

Dr. Colomo-Palacios presented his interest in cooperation with other ENGINE partners, offered support in organizing joint events. His current research areas include:

- Use of network intelligence in information systems management
- Service and product innovation enabled by social networks and intelligent systems
- Applied soft computing in organizational settings